8 SYNOPSIS: The current state constitution was ratified 9 in 1901 and requires submitting the question of 10 whether to call a constitutional convention to 11 revise the constitution to the qualified electors 12 of the state.

13 This bill would call for a special statewide 14 election to submit the question of whether to call 15 a constitutional convention to the qualified 16 electors of the state. If the majority voting on 17 the question vote in favor of holding a 18 constitutional convention, it would provide for the 19 election of delegates to the convention, provide 20 for the holding of the convention, and would 21 provide for a special election to submit the 22 proposed constitution, once prepared by the 23 convention, to the voters for ratification in 24 conformity with Amendment 714 of the Constitution
25 of Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Section 286.01
26 of the Official Recompilation of the Constitution
27 of Alabama of 1901, as amended.

2 A BILL
3 TO BE ENTITLED
4 AN ACT
5

6 To provide for a special election on the issue of 7 calling a constitutional convention to revise and amend the 8 Constitution of Alabama of 1901; and in the event a majority 9 of electors voting on the issue in the special election favor 10 the convention, to provide for the election of delegates to 11 the convention; to provide for the holding of the convention; 12 and to provide for a special election to ratify the proposed 13 constitution in conformity with Amendment 714 of the 14 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Section 15 286.01 of the Official ReCompilation of the Constitution of 16 Alabama 1901, as amended.

17 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

18 Section 1. A special statewide election shall be 19 held in June 2010 on the same date and in the same manner and 20 by the same officers as the political party primary election 21 provided for in Section 17-13-3 of the Code of Alabama of 22 1975, as such section has been or may be from time to time 23 amended, for the purpose of determining whether a convention
24 shall be held to revise and amend the Constitution of Alabama
25 of 1901. At the election, the question of whether to hold a 26 convention shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified

1 electors of this state. There shall be printed on the official 2 ballots the question to be voted in the following form:

3 "Do you favor the holding of a constitutional 4 convention for the purpose of revising the Constitution of 5 Alabama of 1901?

6 "Yes () No ()"

7 If a majority of the voters voting on the question 8 at the special statewide election shall approve of the holding 9 of a convention for the purpose stated, the election of the 10 delegates for the convention and the holding of the convention 11 shall be held in the manner hereinafter provided.

12 Section 2. In the same manner as for any other 13 general election ballot, the election officials of each county 14 shall ascertain the number of votes "Yes" and the number of 15 votes "No" and shall certify the vote results to the Secretary 16 of State. The Secretary of State, as quickly as practicable, 17 shall certify the statewide results. If it appears that a 18 majority of all persons voting on the question at the special 19 election voted for the holding of the convention, the Governor 20 shall give public notice, by proclamation, of the fact that a 21 majority of the electors of the state voting on the question 22 at the special election approved the call of the convention 23 for the purpose of revising and amending the Constitution of 24 Alabama of 1901. The proclamation shall be published in every 25 county in a newspaper of general circulation. The courts of 26 the state shall take judicial notice of the proclamation.
27 Additionally, if the holding of the convention is approved by

1 the qualified electors, a supplemental appropriation shall be 2 made during the next special or regular session of the 3 Legislature for funds necessary to implement this plan.

4 Section 3. The Legislature of Alabama declares and 5 finds the following:

6 (1) That Alabama's voters are intelligent,
7 insightful, wise, and spiritual, and thus, totally trustworthy
8 to decide fundamental questions of current and future state 9 policy and law, including and especially the character and 10 content of their own Constitution.

11 (2) That Alabama's 1901 Constitution is today in 12 urgent of need of a fresh and open reexamination and revision 13 in a sound public convention process to assure maximum public 14 voices and broad participation, with respect to and with 15 humility by all present state and local elected officials.

16 (3) That Alabama's new Constitution should provide a 17 fundamental law by the people, for the people, and of the 18 people of the great State of Alabama, with an enduring legacy 19 of fundamental rights of liberty and justice for all, firmly 20 developed by the people of the State of Alabama, invoking the 21 favor and the guidance of Almighty God.

22 Section 4. If the holding of the convention is 23 approved by the qualified electors of this state, the 24 delegates elected in the manner hereinafter provided shall 25 convene in the historic hall of the old chambers of the House
26 of Representatives in the State Capitol building in the City
27 of Montgomery at 12:00 noon on the first Monday in June 2011,

1 and proceed to organize the convention by the election of a 2 president and any other officers, from among themselves, as 3 they may deem necessary. The most senior associate justice of 4 the Alabama Supreme Court, or in his or her absence the second 5 most senior associate justice, shall call the convention to 6 order and preside over the convention until a president is 7 elected. The convention shall continue in session at times and 8 places designated by the president of the convention until, by 9 careful revision and amendment of the present constitution, it 10 shall frame and adopt a revised constitution or proposals for 11 this state or until the convention is duly adjourned by the 12 delegates.

13 Section 5. (a) There shall be two delegates elected 14 from each House of Representatives district as the districts

18 election that shall be held on the first Tuesday after the 19 first Monday in November 2010, on the same date and in the 20 same manner and held by the same officers as the general 21 election provided for in Section 17-14-3 of the Code of 22 Alabama of 1975, as such section has been or may be from time 23 to time amended.

24 (b) A delegate to the convention shall be at least

26 his or her district, a citizen of the State of Alabama for 17 the Fair Campaign Practices Act, an individual who has 18 received contributions or made expenditures, or given his or 19 her consent for any other person or persons to receive 20 contributions on his or her behalf, in the amount of one 21 thousand dollars ($1,000) with a view to bringing about his or 23 though that individual has not filed a declaration of 24 candidacy with the Secretary of State.

25 (2) Other than contributions a candidate for 26 delegate makes to his or her own campaign, a candidate is 27 prohibited from accepting a campaign contribution (including

2 ($100) from any one source. For the purpose of this 3 limitation, a run-off election shall be considered a separate

25 any person to sit in the convention as a delegate, the 26 question shall be decided by the convention which shall be the 27 exclusive judge of the election, qualification, and returns of 1 its own members. Any person desiring to contest the election 2 of a person certified as being elected as a delegate to the 3 convention may do so in the same manner as the election of a 4 member of the House of Representatives of the Legislature of 5 Alabama is contested and by giving the same bond. Testimony 6 shall be taken in the same manner.

7 Section 7. Before entering upon the discharge of his 8 or her duties as a member of the convention, each delegate,

15 supplied with stationery, books, statutes, reports, and 16 documents in the same manner as members of the Legislature of 17 Alabama. The delegates shall receive for their service the 18 same compensation and expenses from the State Treasury as is 19 allowed to members of the Legislature of Alabama and shall be 20 entitled to a daily rate per diem equal to that rate paid to

2 members of the Legislature of Alabama is by law directed to be 3 made. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no legislative member who 4 is a delegate shall receive additional legislative 5 compensation or per diem if the legislative member is being 6 paid any other payments on the same dates for attendance on 7 other state business. Per diem, mileage, compensation, and 8 other expenses shall not be allowed or paid to any member of 9 the convention for a period of time longer than a maximum of 25 act establishes more restrictive requirements, the Alabama

26 Code of Ethics shall apply to lobbyists to the same extent it 27 applies to lobbying the Legislature or a regulatory agency.

1 Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, all
2 lobbyists shall be required to register with the State Ethics
3 Commission as required by Section 36-25-18, Code of Alabama 4 1975, and to file the reports required by that section.

6 Commission on the first day and the fifteenth day of each 7 month, beginning December 2010 and continuing each month 8 thereafter until the convention is duly adjourned and any 9 convention proposal or proposals filed with the Secretary of 10 State have been presented to the voters for ratification in 11 conformity with Amendment 714 of the Constitution of Alabama

5 constitution or proposals by this convention, the Governor, 6 within one week after the filing of the constitution with the 8 the same manner as the proclamation to assemble this 9 convention. The proclamation shall state that the constitution 10 or proposals have been framed and that a special election will 11 be held on a specific date in the same manner and by the same 12 officers as general elections are required to be held for the 13 purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of this state 14 for ratification or rejection of the constitution or proposals 15 framed by the convention. The special election, in conformity
